

The Little Scroll

The Little Scroll is the disentanglement of the testimony of Christ from the testimony of the world.

This is The Little Scroll of Revelation 10.

1.

In the beginning was The Tree Of Life. He was sent by The Father and was revealed to mankind. His name is Jesus Christ and His fruit are His Words.

All who ate His Words and believed in Him and that He was sent by The Father were given life in order that they could share His Words and give life to all who feasted on them and believed.

But men lived by knowledge and hated The Tree Of Life so tried to cut Him down but failed. Three hundred years after Jesus had been revealed to mankind, men planted trees of knowledge around The Tree Of Life to create an orchard. They called this orchard The Bible and claimed that all the trees were the same and all of the fruit good to eat.

They justified The Bible with this scripture in a letter written by Paul to Timothy:

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction for instruction in righteousness. “ 2 Timothy 3:16 (KJV)

But where there is justification, there is sin.

This allowed them to acknowledge life, yet live by knowledge.

2.

Paul wrote this letter to Timothy in Greek and the word he used for “inspiration” was “theo-pneustos” which means God-breathed.

Paul did not refer to the Bible as God-breathed for it didn't exist. Much of it had not been written and would not come into being till three hundred years later when Paul's letter would be neatly slotted in to give it all credibility.

Paul was a teacher of The Way of Jesus Christ and did not refer to the twenty four books of the Jewish canon which were kept as separate scrolls in the Temple as God-breathed.

When Paul wrote this letter to Timothy, the only scripture they had was the Words of Jesus that they had written down and it was only these Words they considered to be God-breathed because Jesus is God's Son.

Jesus Himself had already made it clear to the Pharisees who were the teachers of and descendants of the Old Testament characters that wrote these scrolls that they were not God-breathed when He said to them:

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” John 3:39 (KJV)

Jesus is clearly saying that there is no life in men's words but quotes those words which point to Him because faith in Him and His Words brings life.

3.

Those who teach that all of The Bible is God-breathed or the inspired word of God, uphold the Words of Jesus, the words of believers, the words of Satan, the words of demons, the words of witches and the words of unbelievers as God-breathed or God inspired and find themselves bound to do so. They also uphold the genocide in the Bible and other atrocities as carrying out the will of God and also find themselves bound to do so.

In Numbers 31: 7-18 The Israelites kill all the Midianites except for the virgins, whom they take as spoils of war.

In 1 Samuel 15:1-9 God tells the Israelites to kill all the Amalekites – men, women, children, infants, and their cattle.

In Judges 21:1-23 A tribe of Israelites didn't come to assembly, so the other Israelites kill them all except for the virgins who were raped.

In 2 Kings 2:23-24 Forty two children tease the prophet Elisha, and God sends bears to dismember them.

In Judges 19:22-29 A mob demands to rape a godly master's guest. The master offers his daughter and a concubine to them instead. They take the concubine and gang-rape her all night. The master finds her on his doorstep in the morning, cuts her into 12 pieces, and ships the pieces around the country.

In Judges 11:30-39 Jephthah burns his daughter alive as a sacrificial offering for God's favour in killing the Ammonites.

In Deuteronomy 17:12 God makes a law which allows priests to kill anyone that won't listen to them.

Would Jesus commit murder, kill those who don't listen and rape children?

In Psalm 5:5 We are told that God hates sinners. This is a direct contradiction of Jesus who says:

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16 (KJV)

4.

The Pharisees upheld their scriptures as divine in the same way that Christians who uphold this false teaching contradict Jesus who told the Pharisees that they didn't know God:

"Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father?" Jesus answered: "Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also." John 8:19 (KJV)

Jesus revealed to Nicodemus, also a Pharisee that no one had ever entered heaven except Himself:

"And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven." John 3:12 (KJV)

Jesus also told Nicodemus:

"Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." John 3:3 (KJV)

So it is clear from Jesus' own Words that the Pharisees who were the teachers of the Old Testament scrolls and their ancestors who wrote them, didn't know God, were unsaved or not born again and had never entered Heaven.

Taking Jesus' God-breathed Words and stitching them onto The Old Testament scrolls, a work by the unsaved and calling it all The Word of God is no different from taking Jesus' God-breathed Words and stitching them onto any other religious work written by a people who didn't know God and calling it all The Word of God.

Yet many churches are built on this foundation.

Jesus also confirmed that the new and the old cannot go together.

“No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.” Matthew 9:16-17 (KJV)

Yet only three hundred years later the new was wrapped in the old by men of knowledge.

The Little Scroll tears the old garment from the new cloth and breaks the old bottle to reveal the new wine.

The Little Scroll is sweet as Honey for those who want to uphold The God-breathed Words of Jesus as The Word of God but is a bitter pill to swallow for those who idolise The Bible and want to try and justify the whole Bible as The Word of God contrary to the teachings of Jesus.

The Little Scroll releases true followers of Jesus from the bondage of The Old Testament and clears the path for true teachers of The Way and the return of Christ.

5.

The Little Scroll Delivers This Truth.

Only Jesus' Words are God-breathed because only Jesus was conceived by His Father's Holy Spirit making Him the Son of God and only His Words bring life. He is The Word from God and only His Words are The Word of God.

Jesus Christ is Lord.
